Just some kind of feeling—hard to explain;
When I'm at Camp Peaceful Pines, things just aren't the same.

You come in from a world of hate—a world that's filled with fear;
But when I'm at Camp Peaceful Pines,
I know the Lord is near! —Jeff Quay, adapted

Continuing the work of Jesus. Peacefully. Simply. Together.

A Branch in Jesus

I want to be a branch in Jesus
Rooted deep in God's love so pure,
Walking in my Father's eternal grace,
I'll have nothing to fear.

Living my life full of love,
I'll have nothing ever to hide,
If I have my Lord and Savior,
Jesus Christ embedded deeply inside.

As I walk my life with God,
I know there'll be a little rain,
It'll never be more than I can handle,
If in my life Christ Jesus does reign.

I long for that eternal day of comfort,
To be enfolded in God's compassion so warm,
When upon this battlefield called earth,
God's mighty warriors of angels do swarm.

The One whose embrace I long to feel,
Whose shining face I long to see,
In His eternal love I'll live forever,
It's His grace that's set me free.
